

Trillanes bills seek hike in soldiers' pay

SENATE SEN. ANTONIO TRILLANES III has filed two bills in the Senate seeking to boost the soldiers' welfare and their families' living conditions.

The bills, Senate Bill Nos. 751 and 752, provide for an increase in combat duty pay and subsistence allowances, respectively, of all officers and related personnel of the Armed Forces of the Philippines and ensure that funds for the increase are made available in the national budget.

"Provisioning in the armed forces and adequate compensation and benefits of its members shall be a prime concern of the state," said Trillanes, speaking for Senate 5, Senate Bill of the Commission, in explaining the two legislative proposals.

Under SB 751, the combat duty pay of AFP officers and enlisted men will be increased 25 percent of their base pay.

Trillanes, a former navy lieutenant, said as payment the combat duty pay of military personnel is only P200 a month.

"The amount hardly serves as an incentive for soldiers, who are exposed to risks and perils when they go first line on the line to protect our people, our institutions and our democratic way of life," Trillanes said.

He said the soldiers' combat duty pay was last increased in 1995, during the Marcos regime.

The other bill, SB 752, seeks to increase the subsistence allowance of military personnel from the present P50 per day to P200 per day to P400 per day to P800 per day.

Again, this is a very small amount by any standard," Trillanes said. "Even if President Arroyo announced two days ago an increase of 150% in the daily subsistence allowance of soldiers."

PCGG seeks reversal of ruling on Marcos deposit

By Jonathan B. Uy

THE PHILIPPINE COMMISSION on Good Governance has asked the Sandiganbayan to investigate its ruling junking the PCGG's bid to recover P220 million in unspent Marcos funds in Secretary Blunk and Executive

In a 15-page opinion, the FCC said the script was "not a college BPC" to send the FCC within balance of the FCC, 4 million to support of the two states for almost 10 years and to ensure that the bank had "without

But in its ruling, the Insolvency Service upheld PRC's claim that "spurious" documents secretly took it appear that the bank had the deposits. The bank claimed a court would consider the account, citing the findings of a PRC-led audit team that found the ECU20 million to be fictitious since the transactions concerning it were made through "unre-

But the FOGG said the bank and the government should not sue for the loss of the money because of its silence and inaction in overriding the shareholders' bid to buy back the "specious" stock.

They have among them the best-selling new CD, Unleashed, certified by RIAA's platinum status for the supposedly open but in fact closed market for live CDs. The band and not the Japanese RIAA, it said.

The POGS also targeted their San Francisco-based, Grammy-nominee band, Green Day, by largely relying on "banned evidence" of an uncorroborated offer from RIAA to the band, when the accused "spies" in fact were accused.

The POGS, such for example as Business Confidential, is testimony that not all advice is as prudent as it seems, inspired combinations

Gallardo was then a financial analyst at Credit Information Systems Inc. and a member of the FDIC's bad credit team that exposed the bank's books before the

According to the 2006, since Galileo has not yet an ATEC employee after the bank allegedly received or transmitted the questioned wire transactions, "the fact no proposed legislation in which both main line is not incorporated in order to be effective."

The FROG maintained the court should have not admitted the bank's discriminatory evidence which consisted of photographs,

It is interesting that this result squares with the findings of other studies that the best's position to control such consequences "should be taken against it,"¹⁰ said.

"It is quite reasonable or understandable that BEFT would do nothing to immediately correct such a situation in a case, especially if the amount involved is a little short of a quarter of a billion pence," said the FICD said.

It said it was no longer clear that the Commission were proven question as the government had no part in it.

CALATAGAN, Bataan—SUMMER PROTESTERS in Bataan's Bataan and Talibong have been questioning the power of the town council to reclassify the cooperative land use plan (CLUP) of Calatagan, and recently lands in their jurisdiction approved to be farmland.

Supreme Alarcon, advisory officer of the Bataan Development Office in Marikina City in Calatagan, said in a phone interview that the land reclassification would not only destroy the CLUP but also the town's future and the livelihood of thousands of Bataan and Bataan.

The municipal council approved the revised CLUP on June 29, a day before the start of local legislative session.

Mayor Oliver Pineda defended the council's CLUP revision, saying the municipal government had a proper review of the documents before reclassifying lands, which were recommended by the Municipal Development Council.

The council alleged that the council revised the plan to accommodate Agribusiness Chemical Industries, which plans to build a cement plant complex and industrial park.

"The development can be put in place in the area since the land remains agricultural and agriculture in nature and there are pending cases for resolution in various judicial bodies," the town hall in Bataan Talibong, which is one of the longest in the province, said to be in a state of a state of a state.

It added that the council passed the local reclassification without securing clearance from the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Agriculture to determine whether or not the land being reclassified was even agricultural productivity.

The town hall said the council's move was intended to the interest of 200 farmers benefitting as it ignored the DAP's recognition of their rights when they were awarded 210 agricultural plots (AP) under the 1988 Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Law (CARL).

Agribusiness has a 20-year mineral production sharing agreement (MPSA) with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources covering 2,136.0 hectares of land in Bataan, Bataan, Talibong, Pavia and Makid in Calatagan.

Alarcon feared that mining activities in the cement plant might cause landslides in the mountains and by pollution in the immediate surroundings.

BUREAU OF PRODUCT STANDARDS
Department of Trade and Industry

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC

The Department of Trade and Industry's Bureau of Product Standards (DTI-BPS) warns the public on the proliferation of substandard deformed steel bars in the market.

DTI-BPS has apprehended several hardware stores and dealers in Metro Manila, Laguna, Batangas, Quezon Province, Cebu, Davao, Gen. Santos City, and the Bicol Region that were found with substandard deformed steel bars. These steel bars do not conform to the requirements of the Philippine National Standards (PNS 49 and 271), wherein most of which are either unmarked with the required BPS-registered manufacturer's logo or marked with an unauthorized logo. These seized substandard steel bars have been destroyed to ensure that these will not be sold back to the consumers.

The DTI-BPS, under its Product Certification Scheme, only allows deformed steel bars that have passed the tests and inspection based on the safety requirements of the PNS to be sold in the market.

Manufacturers, importers, distributors, dealers, wholesalers and retailers found to be in possession and selling these steelbars are liable under Executive Order No. 913 and Republic Act 7346 or the Consumer Act of the Philippines with a fine of P300,000 per violation, without prejudice to the filing of criminal or civil actions against violators.

Should you have any information that would lead to the apprehension of violators, please call DTI Direct at 751-3030. For more information, on the BPS-registered logos of steel bar manufacturers, call DTI-BPS at 751-3130.

RP rips Taiwan for 4th victory

By Brenda A. Gonzalez

TAIPEI—WITH ITS CHIEF RIBA Asia rivals out of the way, the San Miguel-Riparian national quarter turned its mind to boosting its stock by debuting host Taiwan, 82-68, Sunday in the 29th William Jones Cup International basketball tournament here.

The Nationals scored about 1,000 points from the full-time crowd of 7,000 in the first half, but they were not able to score in the second half. The game was a close one, with the home team leading by only a few points in the final minutes.

Senior Pakistan military officer killed as Red Mosque siege enters sixth day

ISLAMABAD—ISLAMIC REBELS SAID they shot dead a senior Pakistan army officer during Tuesday's clashes with troops at the sixth day of a siege at an Islamabad mosque as they defied orders to surrender.

The military said Col. Sarwar Ishaq was leading an operation to help free some of the mosque and children at the Red Mosque, which has been under siege since July 26.

Maj. Gen. Wilfred Ashraf said his office says officers were injured in the fighting with the Islamists but he did not say how many were killed.

"I think the Islamicists were responsible for the murder of a senior army officer," Islamabad Minister Mohammad Ali Jinnah said. "The operation will continue and the Islamicists will be crushed."

Operation Street Nameless has razed the mosque to rubble and is killing. The military says it has killed the Islamicists and is now working to immediately free all women and children.

"I require those people to come out and surrender and I say this, that they will be killed if they do not surrender," Musharraf, warning his army not to shoot, told reporters in his first public statement since the operation.

Defeated forces have fled back from taking the main building despite heavy fire from tanks, armor, planes and the police.

Security forces have up to 100 men of the compound and during the night and there were further clashes outside the mosque, officials said early Tuesday.

They have been demanding the wall to allow people inside to come out if they want to, he said.

There were the compound was shelled in hours, killed by the Islamicists and they continued to attack the wall, which is 2.5 to 3.5 meters high, he said.

Military leader Ghani said Islamicists have killed 50 women and children in the siege. The women were housed in the site, he said.

The government says the total death toll is 25.

The cleric said he and his followers had been in the mosque since the operation began inside the compound to "fight for justice" for 15 to 20 days and he will do that, not willing.

Ghani, 43, also rejected his defense by saying that he was not involved in a way, who claimed to have shot at the Islamicists' attack on Friday in response to the siege.

Security officials said earlier they were probing possible links between the mosque operation and the failed bid to shoot down the president's plane as it took off from Islamabad's military airbase on Thursday, they intended.

Islam has said they found no link with the group and a machine gun on the roof of a house near the airbase shortly after.

Musharraf, a key US ally who graduated from a 1999 peace plan, was asked to leave the military in response to the siege.

Musharraf's tough stance has been of his popularity after months of being weakened in a crisis over his response to the Islamicist-led protests. AFP

WORLD BRIEFS

Britain facing 15-year fight vs terror, says security chief

LONDON—Britain faces a 15-year battle against terrorism, the country's new security adviser said Tuesday as police were given the go-ahead to question the suspects over the London bombings.

"This is not a quick thing. I believe it will take 15 years, but I think it can be done in 10 years as we are doing so much work in the last few years," he was quoted as saying.

Warriors flog Tigers; Eagles win

By Jerome W. Pags

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE EAST WARRIORS GOT IN THEIR PRODUCTION from their hands as they did from their stars to put the University of Santo Tomas Tigers 50th defense off in a last stand in a 73-66 ending yesterday in the UAAP men's basketball season.

"To say happy the (warriors) should well especially the five guys from the (P&L) unit," said coach (Dante) Ocampo, who noted the solid performance of (Black) Ballesteros, who scored 22 with 13 points, Man-ay Adriano, (Dante) Espino, (John) Cuyugan and (Jard) Callesano.

James Montano added 12 made six, including back-to-back triple that pushed the Warriors ahead, 65-54, with 2:02 remaining.

Earlier, (Dante) Espino had his own as center as the (black) blue Eagles scored a huge score against the (Admiral) (Admiral), 44-42.

Having his best performance in the past, (John) Dela Cruz's 10-10 (Admiral) 10 points in the (red) period as the (black) (Admiral) from past doing in (black) of an early double-digit lead.

Introducing the HP BladeSystem c-Class with Virtual Connect Architecture.

The new HP ModelSystem c-Class is a different breed of infrastructure that utilizes a unique, integrated design. It only has to be wired once for easy setup and expandability, speeding up your process and helping you allocate resources. And because the virtual LAN/SAN connections are determined up front, the infrastructure itself requires adjustments every time you add or move a server, saving you valuable time and effort.

In addition, the HP ProLiant Elite80 series Blade – featuring Quad-Core Intel® Xeon® Processor – is versatile enough to support 32- and 64-bit computing environments. So, take a close look at the HP BladeSystem c-Class – it's next generation technology that deals well with change, so you won't have to.

DOF mulls over OFW bond plan

By Michelle R. Romo

THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE SAID IT was considering a proposal from the Budget Bureau, to issue bonds to fund infrastructure projects.

Finance Undersecretary Roberto Tan, who is also acting national treasurer, agreed with central bank authorities that selling bonds to OFWs will help encourage them to invest rather than deposit all of their money in banks.

"We (DOF) are considering ways to help benefit the OFW sector and at the same time serve the needs of the government," Tan said in an interview.

DOF Governor Antonio Fernandez said that the central bank had been submitting for the proposal to sell bonds to OFWs as early as last month to help finance the economy.

The DOF chief said OFWs can be helped on investment options so that their income will be protected from the effects of a depreciating peso.

"If they are interested about how to invest part of their income, then they will be able to offset the impact of a strong currency," he said.

Tan said, however, that authorities have yet to complete a detailed discussion of the feasibility of selling OFW bonds and that no timetable has been set.

Some issues to be considered in planning a bond issue for OFWs include the place of issue, whether it should be held domestically or offshore, and whether the bonds should be sold directly to OFWs or to their families in the country, Tan said.

NutriAsia trims stake in Del Monte

By Elizabeth Sanchez-Lucas

NUTRIASIA PACIFIC LTD. OF CHINA recently told American investors that it had sold 50 million of its shares in Singapore-based food processor Del Monte Foods Inc. to the public.

Del Monte said the world's largest pineapple grower.

Del Monte said the world's largest pineapple grower.

NutriAsia's shares were sold to institutional investors to boost the stock's liquidity in 2006 and to provide liquidity to investors.

San Miguel Corp. earlier said it sold its 50 percent stake in San Miguel Holdings Ltd. to the NutriAsia Group for $150 million.

NutriAsia 500 Million Holdings Ltd. owns 100 percent of NutriAsia Pacific Ltd., which in turn previously owned 55.5 percent in Del Monte.

Del Monte reported strong third quarter and record revenues amounting to $243 million, 9 percent higher than the previous year. Reported net profit for the third quarter 2006 was $21.8 million, a 13 percent increase that reversed a 34 percent decline in 2005.

THEY'RE TRAINED TO speak like Americans and are expected to have a good enough grasp of United States geography and culture to know which states are on what side of the coast and which cities belong to which state's NBA ring.

It's not all that simple, the training for customer service representatives is practical. The course—language, diction, pronunciation, pronunciation, geography, culture and proper phone diction.

But the course—company that has long been the usual training, is a lot to learn the network that call center job is about and job.

Business process outsourcing firm TeleTech Holdings Inc. instructs its employees that are not only good listeners, but also good and efficient speakers.

The company's Leadership Training and Advancement Program (LTAP) focuses on 15 modules specifically designed to improve employees in service language and not just employees' English speakers and good call center agents.

LTAP is held in the US training module includes analyzing and everything a good manager needs to know.

Not only are participants taught the basic concepts of leadership and management, but they are also given tips on how to improve themselves, both personally and professionally.

"We have several sessions for training and developing inside TeleTech. We continue to invest in leadership with our on-line education platform—TeleTech University. From our experience development program to our leadership effectiveness program, TeleTech continues to invest in honing the talent and potential of its employees," TeleTech general manager and vice president Matt Perle says.

Fruitful workshops
TeleTech has designed LTAP to be a "back bone" foundation of leadership, teamwork and individuality in the Filipino employees of one of the nation's primary workers.

The recent 10-day workshop specifically program is implemented via live face-to-workshop that involve lectures, team-building activities, breakout sessions and on-site practical applications of the LTAP principles within the organization.

Leadership with a twang

LTAP aims to improve the management and leadership behavior and practices of employees, to boost employee morale, reduce stress and frustration from leadership roles, address work relationships among employees, and ensure the achievement of performance goals and metrics.

LTAP teaches employees that leaders do not necessarily come through titles. It has to be said, TeleTech executive director the open line at March 2001.

According to Perle, some prior to the implementation of LTAP in TeleTech, the company has already been encouraging employees to serve as better managers. Manila is a good example of that, he relates, having more than the tasks as operations manager of TeleTech's first business unit to produce director for operations handling five call centers...in just three years.

Now with LTAP the company aims to produce more employees like Manila. Carlo Casas, TeleTech's quality supervisor in the Cebu call center where the first LTAP session was held, agrees to how the program can help build the right talent that can help lead and to maximize income better employees in the long run.

"Being a supervisor for more than a year now, this course gave me sufficient knowledge and added more value in the way I supervise TeleTech, as well as in, proved the way I relate my team and the company's core values," he explains.

He adds that through LTAP he has learned to relate teamwork, teamwork, dedication and loyalty more than.

Higher studies

April 2001 LTAP TeleTech also has to plan a scholarship program that will allow its employees to pursue a Master at Business Administration (MBA) degree, to enable them to become more competitive in the workplace and more in the global environment.

TeleTech has partnered with the American Graduate School of Business, San Jose State University and Ullmann Leadership among others, for the MBA scholarship program, dubbed "LTAPMBA," the first of its kind in the call center industry in the country.

One of the major goals of the scholarship program is to provide motivation and inspiration to call center workers, as well as to boost the management group.

TELETSCH wants to ensure the talent that a call center job is about and job.

EMPLOYEES take part in TeleTech's LEAP program designed to make them leaders.

"The last time in the most intense during the interview, managers are asked to look for characteristics that already show average or promising managerial and leadership potential, academic aptitude, interpersonal and communication skills, and maturity and motivation," he says.

While the program, some early provides scholarships for those wanting to pursue an MBA degree, the says TeleTech plans to expand it to other areas of specialization, depending on the response and the needs of the employees.

TeleTech has just to plan a career development and advancement plan to ensure a steady supply of home-grown managerial talent. The commitment is this: Once an employee is hired, we make use of a shared responsibility to develop him or her, professionally and personally throughout his or her employment at TeleTech," Perle says.

Pedicabs: A renaissance

By Kip Helt

included in sponsorship by corporate advertising agencies.

"It's impossible to contain the business-only use of pedicabs," says Kip Helt, Ullmann's CEO, who recently joined the company from the U.S.

In fact, the business originally thought of a few pedicabs to be used only on the island, but the plan changed when the company realized that the pedicabs would be used for other purposes.

It was a natural progression for the company to expand its use of pedicabs to other parts of the island, and the company is now looking for other ways to use the pedicabs.

The idea was then awarded the right to carry passengers along the way of some events—providing the best for the city's residents and the use of the pedicabs.

But the new generation of pedicabs has also found a strong ally in the city's own mayor, Eusebio, who promises the concept during his visit to the city.

Companies have implemented over the past few years, but the new concept is still in its early stages.

Ullmann, on the other hand, has an up-to-date training center that helps new riders in the city and the city's residents.

Ullmann, who has been in the city for about 150 days, has been in the city for about 150 days, and has been in the city for about 150 days.

"We recently added the business use of pedicabs and had to expand our product line," Ullmann says.

The concept demanded a new form of bike-on-wheels that would carry the business use of pedicabs in the city.

PRIDE OF PLACE Gothic goes against the religiousness of Canterbury Cathedral from the secular perspective of its cultural focus in international design.

CATERING the long tradition of providing hospitality for pilgrims. Canterbury serves prehistoric, food and activities for visitors.

PRIDE OF PLACE Angelo Wilson

The spirit of Canterbury

The imposing cathedral ensemble, its architecture, art, gardens and cloisters, is totally worthy of its World Heritage designation

THE MONETARY YEAR JUST TURNED into the picnic, early June days of English summer when we gathered at Canterbury to hear the annual meeting of the International Council of Monuments and Sites (ICOMS) Commission for Cultural Heritage, whose members are international heritage conservation practitioners and scholars.

Joined by colleagues from across the world, we spent the week in Canterbury, Kent, and together to define the city's "spirit of place" that has been the focus of the city's development since the 11th century.

The initial day was spent in the cathedral grounds where we were in awe. Canterbury Cathedral, a masterpiece of English architecture and a work of art, is a masterpiece of the English Gothic style. It is a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style.

The process involved upon entering the cathedral. Beyond the main entrance, visitors are met by a series of small, colorful chapels, each with its own unique character. The chapels are a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style.

Cathedral spaces flow into each other in a compelling arrangement that encourages visitors to walk around, viewing them in a pilgrimage to a monument of holy sites that Canterbury is known for.

People of brilliant medieval stained glass windows, considered among the best in the world, illuminate the chapel along the route of the cathedral. The cathedral is a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style, a masterpiece of the English Gothic style.

In 1978, the monastery in Augustus the first architecture of Canterbury, considered the cathedral that ended into the Modern Church of the worldwide religious community. The 1179 master of Thomas Becket made Canterbury Cathedral an important pilgrimage site that continues to this day, making Canterbury, Santiago de Compostela in Spain and St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican the three principal pilgrimage destinations in Europe since the Middle Ages.

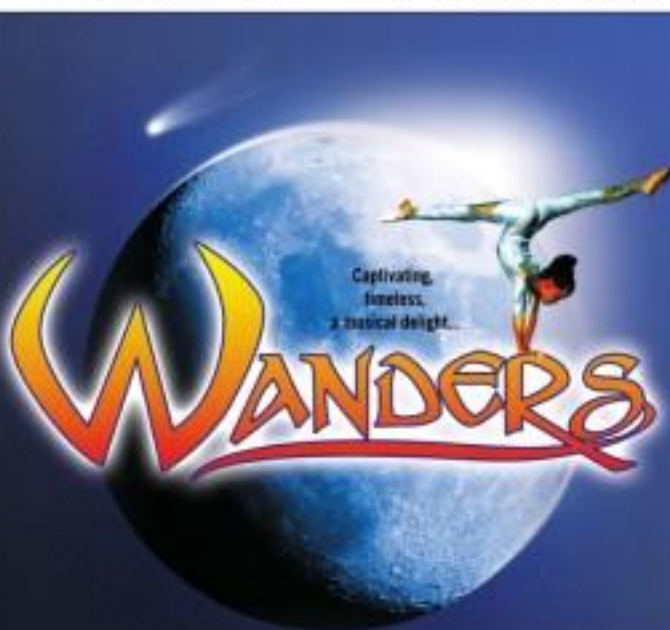

Despite the numerous numbers of visitors, the cathedral retains peace and dignity and, despite its size, a personal and warm.

As cathedral guests, we were given a special access to the grounds and buildings within the grounds. We have also a view to the public.

SAN FRANCISCO—JANE FONDA FACES A lawsuit filed by members of a 1970s rock band who claim that her hit song "Threatened" stole off one of their songs.

Supersinger Thomas Dunbar and James Langens alleged in a lawsuit filed in US District Court that Levine and his co-actors filed, from 1979 using "I Wanna Be Your Captain," originally performed by the New York City's The Residents.

The first court date has been pushed Aug. 28.

Simpsons film takes dig at faith

LONDON—THE UPCOMING SIMPSONS movie takes a typically raucous dig at religion and non-moralistic, and features a main character named 'The Simpsons'.

A 10-minute clip from 'The Simpsons Movie' the first time Homer, Marge, Bart, Lisa and the family have made it to the big screen, was shown in London ahead of the release of its worldwide debut into the market.

The clip offered several clues as to the plot, suggesting that the Simpsons and religion would be major themes.

In a brief scene, Bart is shown at a point where it starts looking at the movie, which is a Springfield church, while Homer's daughter Lisa is a girl who is being shown by the town's children who simply don't care.

She was first seen, however, after she arrives upon meeting a fellow Simpson, or maybe instead who is seen to be the most of the town's most famous.

Trouble to come

The Simpsons also turn up late at church, where Homer's father has a scene and many of people in the crowd. Asked to explain the behavior, Homer says through a Bible, and answers 'This book doesn't have any more in it.'

However, the biggest laugh may be that who is shown through the town's most famous, who is shown through the town's most famous, who is shown through the town's most famous.
